A MUNICH professor has invented a bracelet that will remedy the affliction known as "writer's cramp." The penholder is fastened to the bracelet in such a manner that it can be used to write with ease and without bringing the fingers into use at all. The hand can rest on the table, moving easily along as the letters are traced, as it is said that little practice is required to gain experience in the use of the invention.

may be freely rendered thus:

Stamu soon fade away,
Truth endure for aye.

Underneath this couplet are inscribed the following lines, in Prince Bismarck's handwriting:

Ich glaube das in jeder Welt,
Die Wahrheit stets der Sieg behält;
Doch mit der Lüge dieses Lebens
Kämpfe unser Muthal nicht vergelt.

or which I submit a happy paraphrase:

I do believe, forsooth,
That in some state "Happy Land"
The spurious fairy Truth
May exorcise potent charms
Over our worldly senses,
Where falsehood and deception might,
Lies as so strong, that 't'is
Our Marsden fighting with them in vain.

DEK WARRELIAN, 17, of Germany, seaman, the complainant in the case against Capt. Brown of the Miss Simpson, C. Whalen, 40, of Sweden, chief officer of the vessel, and William Hirs, 35, of Ames, steward of the same ship, were up before Judge Woodhouse this morning charged with drunkenness and incapacity. Police Sergeant Campbell saw the trio on the Praya near the Cantorwharf about a quarter past four yesterday evening, their legs reeling to sustain the top-heavy load induced by the fire-water. Warrelian and chief officer got pulling each other about, probably were endeavouring to maintain a perpendicular by hanging on to each other, when over both splashed into the harbor, creating a great commotion among the throng in the vicinity. With praise-worthy humaneness, Campbell at once got into a sampson, and dived for the two, who were foundering along so many porpoises, and with the aid of boat people hauled them into the sampson. Was fortunate there was a boat close at hand, or they would probably have been drifting there being some ten feet of water the spot. No sooner had the chief been pulled into the boat than he began to act in a most disorderly manner, and rolling about in the breast of his rescuer in the broadest manner to the imminent danger of a capsize. While all this was taking place, the steward and the mate, hung on to the stone pillars of the Praya, the mate's life to a stone pillar with which he embraced, and the other, being delicious to behold. From this interesting scene, Campbell extricated himself, and conveyed the three to the station. In the dock this morning the mate's "conk" exhibited indications of being considerably harder than the one called by Mr. Woodhouse, if they are the same. The impeachment against them, the steward acted as spokesman, made a sort of admission, acknowledging imbibition of fire-water, and loss of intellectual faculties. The mate, however, being of a more practical turn of mind, made a general admission of imbibition of fire-water. The dollar officer fined them fifty cents each, manifest traces of the fire-water being extinguished with the long quite a disreputable

The twenty seventh annual regatta of the Victoria Recreation Club was inaugurated this afternoon under comparatively favorable auspices. The weather was everything that could be desired, a fresh breeze quite counteracting the effects of a hot sun, and making the sailing races unusually interesting. It must, however, be confessed that the regatta has lost much of its former greatness. A few years ago when the municipality of the Peninsula and Oriental Steam Navigation Company placed one of their splendid steamers at the disposal of the committee for a flagship, and an excellentiffin and an enjoyable walk could be indulged in between the intervals of racing, the regatta was regarded as one of the events of the season and received the patronage and support of the ~~many~~ of our fashionable society. In these days, besides the flagship, number of craft of every description lined the last half mile of the course on both sides, most of our large boats having water-bobs crowded with their friends whilst the officers in garrison at Kowloon kept open house in regal style. The sports took the form of a far more exciting description than we have seen in recent years. There were more competitors, and so far as our local amateurs are concerned, of a far superior class. We have the swimmers now like the veteran Woodin, and either MacEwen or Munster-Schultz could have given the pick of our swimmers a quarter of a mile start and then lost them. The interest in aquatic sports appeared suddenly to decline, and when the P. and O. Co.'s steamer ceased to be the rendezvous of the fashionable, the popularity of the regatta so far as the outside public was concerned, became a thing of the past. Under all circumstances, we think that the committee, and especially Mr. Stewart Lockhart, the honorary secretary, who has been indefatigable in his exertions to ensure a successful reunion, are entitled to great credit. They have done all that was possible for securing success in the face of the worst of odds, and for themselves the result has in any respect fallen short of anticipations.

Last year, as there was no flagship, the committee was obliged on the second night, erecting a raised stand on a barge, and providing lifts, there for subscription and others. The innovation proved such a dismal failure, that very properly it has not been repeated. A very efficient and much more convenient substitute was the cargo-boat jolly decked with bunting, moored close to the winning post, where a very substantial repeat was prepared, to which ample justice was done. By kind permission of Colonel Hobson and the Officers of The Buffs, the excellent band of the regiment was present, and enlivened proceedings throughout the afternoon by playing the following carefully selected programme in their usual finished style—

March "Dumbliss".....Donnison.
Quadrille "La Maccotte".....Stera.
Bacchante "Pichetel".....Lange.
Valse "Thema Lieder".....Gung.
Selecting "H.M.S. Pandora".....Sullivan.
Dance "La Maccotte".....Sullivan.
Corn & March "H. W. Sampson".....Hollis.
Gala "Save the Queen".....Kessell.
Gala "Save the Queen".....Kessell.

The Dock Company's "fast and powerful tug-boat Fame (vide "ancient advertisements") was, as usual, in attendance to convey visitors to and from Hongkong, but the old clipper was hardly so extensively patronised as in years gone by.

Active proceedings commenced shortly after the appointed time—one o'clock. Very few ladies were present, nor did the male divinites turn out in great force on the flag-lighter. There were certainly a number of small craft about, and more steam launches than we ever remember to have seen in any previous year, the military element largely predominating. For the junior sculls, Fisher, Ball and Danby faced the starter, and after a dismal procession, in which erratic steering was the most prominent feature, the scullers finished in the order named. Fisher, winning by over a hundred yards. The time was very long, and the form wretched. The gig race for soldiers and European policemen—as has invariably been the case for many years past—caused a deal of excitement, the police in their old boat the Zulu, on the strength of their last year's victory, being popular favorites. Only three crews, the police, an R.A. crew in the famous Gunner, and the Huffs, came to the post, and the smooth water being all in favor of the cut-down Canton four, the Royal Artillerymen managed to repeat their 1880 victory, after a desperate race, by rather over a clear length, the Huffs a few lengths away third. The race for men-of-war's gigs brought, as usual, a strong field to the post, and after a grand race the ever victorious galley of the Victor Emanuel, manned by Chinese, achieved their third successive victory, winning by 6 seconds besides their time allowance to two Russians boats from the Duke of Edinburgh and Africa respectively being second and third.

For the German Cup a capital race was witnessed, for about half the distance, when Kultau screw drew away from the "Shamrock" and won very cleverly at the finish, the "Thistle" figuring conspicuously in the rear throughout. The old established contest for house boats and gigs pulled by Chinese brought the whole of the four entries under the starter's flag, and after a tremendous struggle the whole of the way between those ancient rivals the Gunner and Zulu, the former just managed to get home ahead, with the second Commissariat boat a capital third. In the Ladies' Purse, Fisher, although Angier won very easily at the finish, although Kultau and Falconer stuck to them very closely until within two hundred yards from home, when they dropped away beaten. Hughes and Tomkins being out of the hunt from the start. The sailing race for small decked and half decked boats was won by Mr. Tripp's cutter Sea Lark, with Mr. Bear's Obasan second, and Mr. Leatherbarrow's Sturgeon third.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. M. S. TONNOCHY.

As we announced would be the case in our last issue, the body of Mr. M. S. Tonnochy was interred in the Protestant Cemetery, Happy Valley, this morning. The funeral cortege left Victoria Gaol at 8 o'clock, the prison bell solemnly tolling as the coffin was borne from the Superintendent's quarters and placed in the hearse. Nearly the whole of the European residents of the colony were present, besides a large number of Indians, Chinese and representatives of other nationalities. As the procession slowly wended its way towards Wong-ni-chong, many people from various quarters joined in, and on arriving at the cemetery, the following was largely augmented by friends of the deceased, who were waiting there. It was suggested, as the deceased was a Past Master of the Zealand Lodge, and a most zealous and enthusiastic member of the craft, that he should be buried with full masonic honors; but as it was not known that such a desire had ever been expressed by the departed brother, the District Grand Master did not feel justified in taking upon himself the responsibility of such a step; however, circulars were issued by the various lodges requesting their members to attend the funeral.

As the procession wound its way round by the road skirting the raccourse, the sight was a most imposing and impressive one. Preceding the hearse were two mounted police officers, a European and a Sikh, and immediately following were Captain W. M. Deane, Superintendent of Police, who, with the Hon. P. Ryrie, Mr. J. H. Cox, and Mr. Robert Lyall, all old and trusted friends of the deceased, acted as principal mourners. Then came a detachment of European police, followed by an Indian contingent, and the warders and guards of Victoria Gaol, all of them wearing their side arms. The officers of the government, the friends of the deceased, and the general public, brought up the rear. In addition to the gentlemen already mentioned, amongst many others we noticed His Excellency the Administrator (Hon. W. H. Marsh), who was attended by his aide-de-camp, Major Hamilton of The Buffs, His Excellency General Sargent, C.B., and his aide, Major Harrison of The Buffs, Dr. F. Stewart, Acting Colonial Secretary, Mr. F. Snowden, Puisne Judge, Mr. Jas. Russell, Colonial Treasurer, Mr. E. L. O'Malley, Attorney-General, Mr. H. E. Woodhouse and Captain H. G. Thomsett, R.N., Police Magistrates, Mr. J. M. Price, Surveyor General, Mr. E. Bowdler, Assistant Surveyor General, Mr. A. Lister, Postmaster General, Capt. McEuen, Deputy Harbour Master, Mr. C. V. Creagh, Deputy Supt. of Police, Mr. John S. Brewer, Government Marine Surveyor, Dr. P. L. C. Ayres, Colonial Surgeon, Dr. Wharry, Supt. of the Government Civil Hospital, the Hon. F. Bulkeley Johnson, several naval and military officers, Sir Walter Medhurst, Colonel Mosby, Consul for the United States, Mr. W. Reinders, Consul for Austro-Hungary and Russia, Mr. Atwell Coxon, Consul for Belgium, Mr. A. G. Romano, Consul for Brazil, Mr. R. Silvin, Vice-Consul for the French Republic, Mr. T. Jackson, Mr. F. D. Sassoon, Mr. C. P. Chater, District Grand Master of Hongkong and South China, the Officers of the District Grand Lodge, Masters of the various lodges in the colony, and a large number of the brethren, Drs. Clouth and Young, nearly the whole of the merchants, brokers, and professional men, and a crowd of government officials and other residents.

On arriving at the gate of the cemetery the coffin, made of polished oak, and conspicuous for its gigantic size, was borne on the shoulders of ten stalwart European policemen to the chapel, where the burial service was impressively recited by the Rev. Mr. Jennings, Colonial Chaplain. The procession was then re-formed, and the body carried by its former bearers to that part of the burial ground known as "the old residents' corner," where with due solemnity it was consigned to its Mother Earth.
